

Raymond Camacho

August 18, 1939 - September 20, 2012

Raymond Daniel Camacho, 73, of Machesney Park, Illinois died Thursday, September 20, 2012, in Kindred Hospital in Sycamore, Illinois

Raymond was born August 18, 1939 in Rockford, Illinois the son of Roman and Agnes (Lawler) Camacho.

Raymond graduated from West High School in Rockford, and joined the U. S. Air Force, serving during peace time.

He married Vivienne Janaway on November 18, 1961, in Whorchester Park, Serrrey, England.

Raymond was employed as the national sales manager for GC/Thorsen Tools and retired in 1984.

He is a former member of the board of directors for the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts where he also served on the Blackhawk Council, and a former member of the Jaycees.

His survivors include wife, Vivienne; sons, Stephen (friend Michele) Camacho of Machesney Park and Dean Camacho of Loves Park; grandchildren, Minel, Taylar and Elizabeth Camacho; brother, Thomas Bell of Rockford; sister-in-law, Lynette Janaway of England; and nephew, Greg Bell.

Predeceased by parents; and sister, Margaret. Visitation from 4 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 25, at McCorkle Funeral Home, 767 North Blackhawk Boulevard, Rockton, Illinois.