

Sachiko Gotoh Cunningham

Sachiko Gotoh Cunningham, 79, passed away February 2, 2010, in Ft. Walton Beach, Florida. Sachiko was born in Ehime Ken, Japan, on January 2, 1931. She is predeceased by her loving husband, Robert A. Cunningham, who served in the United States Army and an Air Force veteran. Survivors are her daughters, Vickie Lynne Smith (David) and Linda Lea Hahn. She is also survived by four grandchildren, Sandra Marie, Kenneth Anson and Kendra Lynne Moushey and Heather Lea Skidmore (Randall); and three great-grandchildren; one brother-in-law, Richard Cunningham; two sisters-in-law, Theresa Cunningham and Helen Conard; and many family members in Japan. At the request of the family, there were no formal services. She was buried with her husband at Arlington National Cemetery.

Published in Sun-Sentinel on February 11, 2010

NOTE: Sachiko was a longtime member and avid supporter of the GEEIA-MDA-EI Association. She was a civilian employee of the 1885th I & M Squadron at Fuchu AS, Japan at the time her husband, Robert A. Cunningham, was assigned to the unit.